THREE MORE CONVENTIONS HERE

Associations Will Meet in St. Louis

Three more 1920 conventions have St. Louis Publicity and Conventions Bureau. They are conventions of the International Fire Fighters' Asciation, Roadmasters and Maintenance of Way Men, and the National ciation of Gardeners.

The roadmasters have just concluded a convention in Cleveland, and St. Louis had strong competition in getting the next meeting. Capt. John Manion of St. Louis Fire Department, who attended the firemen's convention in Portland, Ore., said the next convention would be an impor-tant one. About 300 gardeners from all parts of the country will attend that convention, it was said last night at a meeting of the committee to make the arrangements. The presence of the Missouri Botanical ing the gardeners here.

Becker Murder. A verdict of guilty, with life im-prisonment as the penalty, was returned by a jury in Judge Klene's court yesterday in the case of Thomas Hunt of 915 South Twentysecond street, one of four partici-pants in the robbery and murder of Henry (Kid) Becker, profession gambler, April 14 last.

No testimony for the defense was offered at Hunt's trial. He had made confessions to the police and to reporters that he was present when Becker was killed and took Becker's money, but he denied he shot him. For the same crime John T. Dougherty is to be tried Oct. 13 and John O'Brien is to be tried Nov. 10. Arthur (Dicky) Kahmann, also nder indictment for the murder, as not been caught.

PERSHING TODA

Their Expressions Will Be Made at an Informal Reception at the War Department.

By the Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 19 .- The personal congratulations of army officers on duty in Washington will be extended to Gen. Pershing today at an informal reception at the War Department. Bureau chiefs have been asked by Gen. Pershing to invite every man on their staffs. The reception will be held in the office of Secretary Boker.

Thanks of Congress Given to Gen.
Pershing Yesterday.
Reaching its climax yesterday in the House chamber, the nation's welcome to Gen. Pershing came to an end, when the thanks of Con-gress and of the American people were extended to him and to the army he commanded.

Acknowledging the honors conferred by Congress, Gen. Pershing

"I am deeply sensible of the privilege of appearing before you as a representative of the American Expeditionary Forces and am filled with emotion at the sentiments that have been expressed. This honor affords me profound gratitude as a recognition of the achievements of our splendid army. In receiving at your hands an expression of the approval of our people, I am richly awarded.

"A final report of the organiza-tion and the operations of our armies will be made to the Secretary of War. The manner in which this great force was developed into an instrumentality for victory is well known to you. The burdens that fell to the lot of our soldiers have been heavy and the way beset by many obstacles, but faith in the righteousness of our cause and trust in Almighty God have given us courage and inspiration.

"The trials of battle demanded Spartan endurance and utmost selfsacrfice. Never have men faced a more difficult task, nor borne great er hardship and never have troops shown a finer spirit of willingness or more resolute purpose

"Might in Spirit of People."
"The might of America les not only in her numbers and her wealth. but also in the spirit of her people and their determination to succeed at whatever cost. While every man who went to France courageously did his part, behind him were millions of others eager to follow, all supported by a loyal people who deprived themselves to sustain our armies and succor our allies. Whether billeted in French, Belgian or Italian villages, or in the camps of England. our young men, have left behind them a standard which will give the other nations of the world a firmer belief in the sincerity of our motives.

"The benefits flowing from the experience of our soldiers will be broadly felt. They have returned in the full vigor of manhood, strong and clean. In the community of effort men from all walks of life have learned to know and to appreciate each other: through their patriotism. discipline and association they have become virile, confident and broad minded. Rich in the consciousness of honorable public service, they will bring into the life of our country a deeper love for our institutions and a more intelligent devotion to the du-

"To you, gentlemen of the Conress, we owe the existence and maintenance of our armies in the field. With a clear conception of the mganitude of th. struggle, you adopted the draft as the surest means of utilizing our man power. You promptly enacted wise laws to You promptly enacted wise Jaws to develop and apply our resources to the best effect. You appropriated the fabulous sums required for military purposes. Many of your members visited the armies in the field and cheered us by their interest and the summethy. You made possible the sympathy. You made possible the organization and the operation by which victory was achieved.

"Throughout the war the Presi dent reposed in me his full confidence and his unfailing support sim-plified my task. The Secretary of War made repeated visits to the front, and I am deeply grateful for his wise counsel. Uhder him the various staffs, bureaus and departments, with all their personnel, are deserving of especial acknowledg-ment for the ability with which their problems were met. The officers and soldiers who served at home are entitled to their full share in the vic-tory. The army was conveyed overseas with the maximum of safety and comfort and with incredibly small loss. In this arduous service the generous assistance of the seamen of Great Britain deserves our lasting appreciation.

"A special tribute is due those benevolent men and women who min-istered to our soldiers at home and abroad. The welfare societies, maintained by a generous public, gave us invaluable aid. In our hospitals the surgeons and nurses, both per-manent and temporary, served with a skill and fidelity that will ever be

orthy of our grateful remembrance. "Business and professional men abandoned their private interests and gave their service to the country. LANE APPROVES ST. LOUIS ARTS AND CRAFTS EXHIBITION

Secretary Says It Is a Move in Right Direction for Producing Appreciation of Design.

By the Washington Correspondent of the Post-Dispatch.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 19.—In a statement for the Post-Dispatch, Franklin K. Lane, Secretary of the Interior, gave his personal and official approval of the purposes of the Exposition of Industrial Arts and Crafts to be held in St. Louis Oct. 15 to Nov. 11.
"If we are to be an industrial in tion," said Secretary Lane, "we must rely on ourselves from the ground up. We should not content oursely with producing the raw material a standardized rough product, but should go into the refinements of the industries. Heretofore we have largey aped Europe as to designs. We have been copyists, not creators. Now there has come a realization that the American mind is just as capable of creating beauty in design and plan as it is of creating almost human machines. This is no more than an extension of the imaginative faculty and it must be oultivated. We can achieve what we struggle for but we must learn that to secur art we must create a stimulating at

"There is where Paris leads. The spark of genius or talent in the young artist of any kind is fanned into a flame by the generous approciation and the creative criticism of those who are sympathetic with the high purpose of the artist. Dollars alone, the monetary reward, is not enough. There must be a market for the product, to be sure, but there will be no product unless there is a kindly sun to draw forth the hidden talent. Necessity is the mother of in-vention, but appreciation is the mother of art. A people who have not eyes to see never will produce sculptors, painters or designers. Therefore I hail your effort at an exposition of design as a move in the right direction—to produce an artistic appreciation of design, and, once war-worn allies, whose tenacity, after three years of conflict, made possible the effectiveness of our effort. Through their loyal support and hearty co-operation, a genuine spirit of comradeship sprang up among us, which should firmly unite the peoples as it did their armies. "The cheerfulness and fortitude of our wounded were an inspiration Those who are disabled should beme the affectionate charge of our people, whose care they have so richly earned. Let us, in sympathy, remember the widows and the mothers who today mourn the loss of their husbands and sons.

"War Record Rich Heritage." "Our hearts are filled with reverice and love for our triumphant lead. Buried in hallowed groun which their courage redeemed, their graves are sacred shrines that the nation will not fail to honor.

"The glorious record made in the fight for our treasured ideals will be a precious heritage to posterity. It has welded together our people and given them a deeper sense of nationality. The solidity of the repub-lic and its institutions in the test of a world war should fill with pride every man and woman living under its flag. The great achievements the high ideals, the sacrifices of our army and our people belong to no party and to no creed. They are the republic's legacy, to be sacredly guarded and carefully transmitted to future generations.

Keep Your Liver Active, Your System Purified and Free From Colds by Taking Calotabs, the Nausealess Calo-mel Tablets That Are Delightful, Safe and Sure.

Physicians and Druggists are advising their friends to keep their systems purified and their organs in perfect working order as a protection against the return of influenza. They know that a clogged up system and a lazy liver favor colds, influenza and serious complications.

To cut short a cold overnight and to prevent serious complications take one Calotab at bedtime with a swallow of water—that's all. No salts, no nausea, no griping, no sickening after effects. Next morning your cold has vanished, your liver is active, your system is purified and refraced and you are feeling fine with a hearty appetite for breakfast. Eat what you please—no danger. danger.

In the first place, he has a thor-ough knowledge of nation-wide labor conditions, gained while he was chairman of the price-fixing committee of the War Industries Board. Second, he is not financially interested n either side of the labor problem. Brookings said today that he believed his position, and that of others hosen to represent the public, would e an arbitral position. They will the employers and the representatives of labor organizations, who will resent their respective sides.

Will Not Discuss Opinions.
For this reason, he said, he did not wish to express his opinions on labor questions in advance of the conferoce. Some of the other members of the conference, appointed as repreentatives of the public, have exressed their views, notably Judge Elbert H. Gary, president of the United States Steel Corporation.
Judge Gary has lately announced his refusal to deal with labor union representatives, and his unqualified sition to the "closed shop"

"Judge Gary's views have been retty well known for some time." Brookings said. "I have been failiar with them, but I do not care to mment on them. I have my own ews, but I believe I can approach he conference's work with an open nd, and deal fairly with such maters as may be presented.

"In my work on the price-fixing mmittee, which was a practically independent branch of the War In-dustries Board, I had a continual series of hearings and conferences on different industries. Prices on est commodities had to be readjusted every 60 or 90 days, and there was always a schedule of neetings ahead, on steel, coppe otton or some other staple needed the Government.

Insisted on Protecting Labor. "In these price-fixing meetings, avariably insisted on protecting la or. It was recognized, in these dealings, that labor had a distinctive right. It was our business to see that he price should not be made a club, for the manufacturer to whack labor with. With our responsibility of fixing the price, as I viewed it, went also the responsibility of seeing that labor should be fairly treated.

"In this work, it was natural that should become conversant with nany phases of the labor problem. I believe it was the President's knowledge of this fact which caused him name me as a member of the orthcoming conference."

The selection of the public's rep-

BURIED IN STORM AREA ON GENUINE ASPIRIN

Rescue Party Sent for 11 Persons Marooned on Island After Wrecking of Launch.

CORPUS CHRISTI, Tex. Sept. 19.

With a large amount of territory still to be explored, searchers have redoubled their efforts to recover bodies of persons who lost their lives in the gulf hurricane last Sunday.

Bayer Tablets of Aspirin' to be genuine must be marked with the safety "Bayer Cross." Always buy an unbroken Bayer package which contains proper directions to safely relieve Headache, Toothache, Earache, Neuralgia, Colds and pain.

Long stretches of the Nueces Bay shore line have not been visited and there still is much wreckage in the city to be moved. Early today 284 bodies had been eported buried, and of that number only 82 identified. Fifty-seven bod-ies had been buried here. Measures for relieving the distress of the 3000 or 4000 persons made homeless by the storm were reported to be progressing satisfactorily. Officials announced they had sent a rescue party to the remnants of Mustang Island, where 11 persons who were on board the wrecked launch Waldo are marooned.

The Waldo left here Saturday for a trip into the outer bay in honor of a couple recently married. No word was received from her until last night when L. M. Woodward of Houston, a member of the party, arrived here with news of his comanions' plight. Later aviators rought in word that they had sighted the refugees and dropped ome food to them.
The party stopped Saturday evening to spend the night at the New-port Club at Corpus Christi. At midnight they were awakened by the hurricane. They were forced to quit the building and seek higher ground. Finally at the top of Parde Island they found themselves surrounded by water. Members of the party ex-changed farewells. A tent floor was swept toward them. Two of the men leaped into the water and dragged it in. Tying the women to the floor, the men launched out just as a deluge of water swept away their late refuge place. After some time the craft was thrown ashore upon what remained of Mustang Island, a plot hardly more than 20 feet square.

Hastily the men scooped out a refuge in the wet sand into which the party crawled, drawing the raft over them for a roof. There they remained until Monday. The waters had subsided somewhat and from an old fisherman who had survived the storm they obtained their first food in 30 hours. Woodward, by means of a raft, fought his way to the mainland and brought word that the party was safe.

Bishop Paul J. Nussbaum Reported Among Storm Dead.

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., Sept. 19 .-Bishop Paul J. Nussbaum of Corpus Christi, was reported last night among the identified storm dead Doubt exists as to whether he is dead, however, as advices from Houston say Bishop Nussbaum passed through that city last Friday en route to New Orleans.

DOCK ENGINEER IS SLUGGED BY 25 STRIKING LABORERS

Refused to Discharge Employes on Municipal Construction Work or to Agree to Increase in Pay.

William H. Smith, 43 years old, of 720 Baden avenue, a civil engineer directing the construction of the municipal dock at North Market street, was slugged by 25 striking laborers yesterday afternoon when he refused to discharge the laborers who had remained on the job and sign an agreement to increase the Be Sure pay of the strikers to 75 cents an

The strikers were led by a former employe of a wrecking company. They assembled near the dock at noon. Smith was called aside by the leader. Smith protested that he had no authority to grant the demands, as the Board of Aldermen fixed the wage scale. The leader accused Smith of lying and hit him on the jaw. The crowd surrounded the engineer and he was knocked down and trampled. He was kicked several times before the laborers on the dock ran to his aid and the gang

LABORERS CONTINUE ON STRIKE

Increase of Five Cents Refused by Building Contractors. The building laborers continue on strike today, their suspension from the Building Trades Council for striking without authority of that body, and in violation of their contract, seemingly having no effect on the situation. They will meet at 9 a. m. Sunday at New Club Hall, Thirteenth street and Chouteau avenue, to vote on the advisability of continuing the strike in view of the Building Trades Council opposition. A committee from the Building Trades Council, headed by C. J. Lam-mert, president, and M. J. Cassidy, secretary, yesterday conferred with a committee of the Master Builders' Association, and endeavored to get an increase of 5 cents an hour for the strike's in the hope of ending the strike. This was refused by the

MAN SEEKING SHELTER FROM STORM IS SHOT

Two men, father and son, who fell asleep in a hallway at 2403 De Kalb street, where they had taken shelter from last night's rain, were mistaken for burglars by the owner of the bakery and residence there today at a. m. and made the target of revolvers in the hands of Greeks and Italians who reside in the neighbor-

Felix Bogy, 44 years old, 2637 Ar-thur street, Maplewood, a millwright, was shot in the left arm. His son, Lloyd, 23, was unhurt.

John G. Michaelides, 34, owner of the bakery, and Bill Salim, who conducts a restaurant at 148 Barton street, which is around the cor-ner, have admitted, the police say, that they fired the first shots. Others in the neighborhood seized revolvers and began shooting. The Bogys told the police they were on their way home from work on the East Side when the storm broke and they sought shelter in Michaelide's hallway.

INJURED MAN LOSES "STOCK"

John Zau, 56 years old, of Mount live, Ill., fell when alighting from a Broadway car at Lombard street at 5:30 p. m. yesterday, and, although he rolled over in the street, he clung to a suitcase.

At Central Dispensary he refused to put the suitcase aside; in the am-bulance, on the way to the city hospital, he refused to surrender it, and at the hospital he wanted to carry it with him.

A policeman, after a struggle, wrested the suitcase from him, and found it contained six quarts of whisky. Zau suffered a cut on the head in the fall from the car.

The announcement was made in a unique way. Each guest was served with a small round white cake, edged with a circle of orange icing to represent a ring, and a large piece of rock candy was the diamond setting. Cards bearing Miss Nichols' and Mr. Anderson's names were tied to the cake in a lovers' knot. "he guests at the party were 22 of Miss Nichols' most intimate friends.

Miss Nichols is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Matthew Nichof 4059 Westminster place and of 1915. She is the twin sister of Mrs. H. Carlyle Pollack, formerly Miss Adele Nichols.

Mr. Anderson is the son of Mrs. William S. Anderson of Denver, Colo. The wedding will take place ate in the fall.

Social Items

WEDDING of interest to take place tomorrow evening is the marriage of Miss Ruth Jane Markham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Orville Ruler, son of Mrs. Ben Ruler of 5335 Waterman avenue. The cereony will be celebrated at 6:30 'clock at the St. Michael's and All Angels' Church, the Rev. George Norton officiating. The bride's gown will be of white satin, draped with rain. Her veil will be arranged high in the back, with a band across the ront, held in place with a wreath of orange blossoms, and she will carry shower of orchids and lilies of the valley. Miss Florence Markham, a sister of the bride, will attend her as naid of honor and will wear a frock of peach blow taffeta. Miss Ruth Beall of Rogers, Ark., and Miss Elva Ruler will be bridesmaids. Miss Beall will wear a frock of pink taffeta and Miss Ruler a similar frock in a darker shade of pink. All three attendants will wear large brown tulle hats with long tulle streamers, which will wind around their throats and shoulders. Their flowers will be hower bouquets of roses. Raymond Peters will act as best man and the groomsmen will be Marion Leschen and Dr. Carl E. Kohbry. A wedding supper for the bridal party and relatives will follow the ceremony, after which Mr. Ruler and his bride will lepart for the East on a wedding trip. They will be at home after Oct. at 814 North and South road,

Another wedding of tomorrow vening is that of Miss Lorena Jamson to Arthur Christophel, which will take place at 8 o'clock at "Red Gables," St. Louis County home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph W. TUBERCULAR PATIENT OBJECTS TO PAYING CITY FOR SUPPORT

Mount Vernon Writes Letter When Daily Cost Is Increased.
Objections to the city's system of requiring patients it sends to the State Tuberculosis Sanatorium at Mount Vernon to pay to the city the cost of their support at the institu-tion, which is charged to the city. are contained in a letter received yesterday by Comptroller Nolte from Miss Jetta Lowrey, a trained nurse, who is a city patient at Mount Ver-

Miss Lowrey has been paying the city 71 1-3 cents a day, the amount paid by the city for her support. She tells in the letter that she has been informed that the last Legislature enacted a law relieving her of this payment, and says that she will refuse to pay. Her letter was in reply to one from the Comptroller, telling her that the support cost had been increased to $1.671-7 a day.

Associate City Counselor Hamilton has given the Comptroller an opinion that as the city maintains Koch Hospital for tuberculosis patients, it is not required to send patients to Mount Vernon. The State law, some lawyers hold, does not recognize the city institutions and is mandatory in requiring the sending of patients to Mount Vernon if they insist.

Comptroller Noite said today he would write to Miss Lowrey, suggesting that she enter Koch Hospital. Neither he nor Assistant Counselor Hamilton was able to find the act of the last General Assembly whereby Miss Lowrey could claim immunity tarts Proceedings in State Supreme Court, Contending City Ordinance Is Not Valid.

Louis Lerner, arrested here re ently on a charge of violating a ity ordinance prohibiting the solicbusiness establishments of competiters, today instituted habeas corpus troceedings in the Missouri Suprema ourt at Jefferson City to release him from custody on the grounds that the ordinance is null and void.

Lerner's contention is that the or dinance is invalid because it pre vents him from pursuing his livelihood, which, he holds, is legitimate. When arrested he was employed by the Reifler & Ludwig Clothing Co., 717 North Sixth street. The complaint against him was made by the O. K. The Dante Alighieri is a society similar to the Alliance Francais. An announcement of the meeting says it has "no religious, political or party preferences; is purely intellectual, and its aim is to bring into closer relationship the best Italian element in this country with the studious and cultured American element, so that may better understand each

Sections of the Dante Alighieri are established in New York, Boston, Philadelphia, San Francisco and other large cities. One in Pittsburg is composed largely of Americans.

Memorial Trees

The American Forestry Association is urging a widespread movement to plant a tree in honor of the soldier, whether he be returned or left "over there."

Trees

By JOYCE KILMER

Killed in Action, August, 1916.

I thing that I shall never see

A poem lovely as a tree

A tree whose hungry mouth is prest Against the earth's sweet flowing breast;

A tree that looks at God all day And lifts her leafy arms to pray;

A tree that may in summer wear A nest of robins in her hair;

Upon whose bosom snow has lain,

Who intimately lives with rain.

Poems are made by fools like me,

GROUNDS Lucas and Hunt Road, 4000 feet North of Natural Bridge Road

The founders of Memorial Park will put this suggestion into effect:

Memorial Way - Sweeping in majestic curves—a distance of more than a mile—throughout the length of Memorial Parkwill be lined with memorial trees-green forever.

One for each soldier, marine or sailor-who died in the service of his country during this great war-to bear his name so long as it weathers the storms—to stand rare and beautiful amongst the monuments of Memorial Park.

These memorial trees, selected for their hardiness and for their chance of living through centuries to come, will ever speak to the men and women and children who enjoy their shade and beauty; of the men whose names they will bear in everlasting bronze and in whose memory they have grown.

DECREASE IN COMMERCIAL POTATO GROP IS INDICATED

Condition on Sept. 1 Presaged Yield of 22,000 Carloads Less Than Estimate of Last Year. By the Associated Presa.

washington, Sept. 19.—Condition of the late commercial potato crop on Sept. 1 indicated a yield of 123,518 carloads, a decrease of more than 22,000 carloads from the estimate on the same date last year, according to a report today by the Department of Agriculture.

Practically every state, the report said, will show a decreased commercial crop, the estimates of which do not take into account potatoes raised for local supply and not entering into sarload shipments.

We summarize from the letter of J.N. Willys, President of the Willys Corporation, as follows: Willys Corporation, formerly the Electric Auto-Lite Corporation, of Toledo, Ohio, is acquiring the New Process Gear Corporation of Syracuse, N. Y., and the Duesenburg Motors Corporation of Elizabeth, N. J. A New, Light, Six-cylinder Car will be manufactured on a large scale by the Corporation and sold by the Willys-Overland Company, through its branches and a special sales unit, in accordance with the purchase and sales contract recently made between the two companies. This car is already developed and represents the latest achievements of the automobile industry, including a spring suspension which is a revolutionary improvement. Net Tangible Assets shown by the Consolidated Balance Sheet prepared by Messrs. Price, Waterhouse & Co., after giving effect to the recapitalization of the Corporation, based upon the acquisition of the New Process and Duesenburg Corporations, are $43,079,338.27, or $287 per share of First Preferred Stock, and net quick assets exceed $101 per share, exclusive of marketable securities which equal $121 per share additional at book values of their net tan-

Net Earnings of the Auto-Lite and New Process Gear divisions for the five months ending May 31, 1919, are reported by Messrs. Price, Waterhouse & Co. at the rate of 3.41 times First Preferred Dividend requirements, and including 1916, 1917 and 1918, as averaging 2.33 times dividend requirements. These two plants now have booked sufficient business to indicate a net profit, after all taxes, of over $6,000,000 for the next twelve months, or 5 times dividend requirements. These earnings are exclusive of any profits from the new six-cylinder car.

No Mortgage or lien of the Corporation or its subsidiaries, except purchase money mortgages, may be created without the consent of 75% of this issue.

Annual Sinking Fund Payments (which are cumulative) are called for, ranging from 10% on the first $3,000,000 of net earnings (after dividends on this stock) to 3% on the excess over $6,000,000.

THE PAYING PROFESSION

If it's exercise she needs - why not a trapese in the office?

> Why not helpful exercise rather than an excess of tiresome, tedious motions?

But, who ever heard of a stenographer taking a job for the exercise she can get out of it? It isn't the function of a busi-ness office to develop methods of exercise. Still, the injurious practice of reading notes at the side is still in vogue by our best stenographers. Thousands of motions are made per day that actually lower the physical-powers without giving anything healthful in return.

These motions—this exercise—i. e., the constant twisting of the body, head and the shifting of the eyes from notes to letter sheet is ridiculous.

The Line-a-Time System of Transcribing is therefore logical, practical and a physical upbuilder. It is the means of cutting out those unnecessary motions and saving the girl by placing her notes right back of the typewriter so that one thought at a time can be exposed for transcribing.

You must recall that a majority of the people of this country are Re publicans, and when their party leads the way they are much more accustomed to following than they are to picking their own way. Thrasymachus: Naturally. What is it makes you think the league is prevailing? Socrates: I have been listening to the arguments for and against it. There is no argument against it. The debate has gone far enough to satisfy me of that. Merely the better cause appear the worse, as Johnsonius and Reedius do is quite a different thing than making an argument.

Polemarchus: Truly Socrates: That is, I could, if I cared to do so, go down to the agors tonight and oppose the league with a good deal of plausibility, just as can make it appear that marriage is a failure or that life is not worth living. Glaucon: Precisely.

Socrates: Our objection to the sophists was that this was about all the kind of debating Glaucon: So it was. Socrates: That is to say, believing nothing themselves, they first found out what the rest as believed and then opposed that.

Polemarchus: They have an advantage Socrates: Exactly. For instance, I say that honesty is the best policy. You say it isn't. You have the advantage, because whereas it has taken centuries to prove that honesty is the policy, a good case for dishonesty can be made in two or three minutes.

Glaucon: Very good, Socrates. Socrates: The better cause almost always reguires time in which to prevail. It is at once the way with life and with history. We make our way slowly, whether as individuals or as a kind. Thrasymachus: There is no doubt of it.

Socrates: The league of nations is the better cause, and as time passes it grows in strength. It will grow stronger and stronger. As the rest world begins to turn to us wonderingly, not able to make out why so many little things keep us from doing a big thing, we shall gain at length a full realization of what we have felt from the beginning, and the covenant will be

Socrates: It is not that the Republicans do not want to end war, but think of permanent ce made by the Democrats! Glaucon: That would be hell. Socrates: Yes. However, not even politics can industry in Europe has aroused much comment and some anxiety. The President is quoted as say-ing relative to his statement: "I must say to you that I learned nothing in Paris which would lead me to doubt that conclusion."

Evidently Mr. Hoover did not have in mind advances to Europe from the United States Treasury, nor did the President place that construction upon his words. The financial experts in Congress now are convinced that the revenues for the current fiscal year will fall short of expenses to the amount of at least $2,000,000,000, which will have to be taken care of with short loans. If the Government

The Fourth Army reported the following incident. The enemy propaganda had got hold of Lichnowsky's brochure which ascribed, in an incomprehensible way, the fault for the outbreak of the war to the Cerman Government, while his ma-jesty and the imperial Chancellor continually explained that the Enente alone was desponsible for it.

The words of the Kaiser were placed side by side with the corresponding passages of the bro-chure and pronounced lies. To confirm this impression, there was also printed there the opinion of a newspaper of the Independent Social Democratic party, which had been allowed to express, openlichnowsky, to the harm of the people. It was no wonder that the men in the trenches grew perplexed since Prince Lichnowsky was left at liberty and such talk ould be published unpunished.

The Bavarian troops began to look upon the war as a purely Prussian war. The commanding officers were no longer so willing to make use of them as in the earlier years of the war. Only a few divisions threw themselves forward in the old way.

At home everyone was comeletely under the influence of the foe's propaganda and the speeches of the enemies' statesmen, that were designed particularly for us. We still could not enter into our foe's way of thinking. All the parties present in the Reichstag, with exception of the right wing of the Center, echoed the blowlike words of the enemy's propaganda and hurried with their proposals for reconciliation, explanations and demobilization, as if to settle the

The Foreign Secretary (Von Kuhlmann), who incorporated the whole tendency in his person, expressed himself as saying that the war could not be decided upon the battlefield. This was true if one had in mind the war against the unfriendly home front and the support given by the political war machine to the carrying on of the This was false if one believed in reconciliation and understanding, and that is what was proposed. The Foreign Secretary expressed only what the majority was thinking. In this way in the Reichstag, in harangued our wearied people and our soldiers from whom the supreme command must demand, in the name of the fatherland, the sacrifice of their lives on the battlefield.

Could it be expected that under such influences weak natures could become strong? Could it be expected that spoiled youths who in the latter years had grown up without paternal discipline in the midst of political agitators and dissipation, who had earned a great deal of money and who now after a short training had joined the troops, or that men of restles minds after their reclamation was over, could be made into soldiers who would fight resignedly for

King and fatherland? Is it not more likely that they all were thinking only of the preservation of their lives? Was it not to be supposed that these influ-ences must work disastrously upon unfirm natures, particularly in hours of stress when human weaknesses are to the front? Could it should find an echo at home?

Upset by Bolshevik Agent. In addition to this, Bolshevism crept up nearer and nearer, willby the Independent Social Demo crats, and permitted officially to make itself at home in Berlin. We had warned against allowing Joffe to come to Berlin, and, advised by the commander in chief in the East, had suggested that further negotiations with him be conducted in any one city of the occupied

In a desperate effort to gain the support of Bolshevik Russia, the German Government received Len-in's ambassador, Joffe. His first act was to raise the red flag over his embassy, an act that caused the Junkers to rage strenuously. Pro-vided with huge propaganda funds, he entertained lavishly and hungry German legislators, offi-cials and Socialist leaders flocked to his headquarters. Charges were printed that he had a large number of women to reinforce his ef-forts with their charms. He openly carried on plotting with the radical leaders and distributed great quantities of propaganda. We soon recognized in what manner Bolshevism worked. Innumerable warnings were spoken. numerable warnings were spoken.

The deputy general staff handed over to responsible quarters in Berlin a supply of material relating to the activities of the Bolsheviks in Germany. It was unfortunately not its place to follow up the matter further.

As long as Germany showed herself complaisant to Bolshevism Herr Joffe was able to shake the war efficiency of the German people in a way that the Entente, in spite of blockade and propaganda, could never have done.

With this object in view, he placed rich materials at the disposal of the subversive elements in our land. The full extent of his revolutionary activities was of course apparent only at a later the Independent Social Democrats,

Since Jan. 25, 1918, we have systematically prepared the revo-lution. We have incited our people who were going to the front to desert the flag. These deserters we have organized, supplied with false papers, with money and unsigned pamphlets. We sent these men in every direction, especially again to the front in order that they might work among the soldiers there and un-dermine the front. They have induced the soldiers to surrender and so have brought about a gradual but sure decay.

Silently and Inexorably. Side by side with this went the revolutionary and Bolshevik in-fluence of the men of leave. The rankest propaganda was worked in railway trains. The soldiers who were going on leave were moved not to return to the front; those who were on their way to the front, were appealed to to assert the flag and to mutiny. About the end of June and the beginning of July there was much that was still invisible but silently, inexorably, working. Whether one was inclined to the cialist or the Bolsheviks, there was a common endeavor to undermine authority; for years this had been preparing. Now in the time of the State's need this came up to the surface. I will not speak of the ambitious members who now robbed our weak Government of the last vestige of respect nor even of how from every side there were those position and trust in me because I represented the support of authority.

That was a crime on the part of the Democratic party and the Majority Socialistic party; no, it was, to use the words of Tallyrand, worse than that-it was a blunder. A blunder of such colossal weight and shortsightedness that nothing can hush it up. Officers Not Aristocratic.

Instead of seeing in the officer the representative of governmental order, many see in him nothing tarism." without being clear as to what the officer really had to do with the complaints that they felt called upon to make. Everything was so senseless. Our officers' corps had never played politics; it had long lost in before the war had been considered a worthy thing to preserve. It was recruited from all classes and all parties; everyone might become an officer

In many ways it was, alas, no longer the old officers' corps. Certain improprieties were to be blamed upon the strange elements, the lowering of our national mo-rale and the inexperience of many officers who had risen to their grades too soon only because the loss of officers had been so unusually high on the battlefield. The time will come when the eyes of the credulous German people will be opened to these con lilessness and to its own serious crime against this order, therefore against the army, fatherland and itself. May it then pick out the guilty ones.

Germany Today Without a Wise Leader and

Will Never Again Be Free, Says Von Tirpitz

By ALFRED VON TIRPITZ. Twelfth Installment.

THE German people never again will be a free people! drop out of the ranks of the great nations of the world-either slowly or quickly, according to their Constitution and their population Then a new renaissance for Ger many, like that which was attempted at Weimar, will be wholly impossible. We are in a worse situation now than we were at the end of the Thirty Years' War in October, 1648, which left Ger many dismembered and stripped of all her valuable territory. Then France and the Government of the grasping Gustavus Adolphus seized our rich bishoprics and other valuable areas. Ther France obtained three territorial divisions whose names rise again in the trinity of disasters which preceded our peace-Toul, Verdun and Metz.

But then Germany had the Elector of Brandenburg in Potsdam, from which radiated the genesis of the new empire of two centuris and a quarter later. At that later date there was a Bismarck to guide us. And then the Emperor. But who today?

Germany Bereft of a Leader. I make the statement that Ger mans never again will be free because I am confronted with the fact that Germany today is without a wise, powerful or dignified statesmanship. What does Ger-many need most if this impending disaster is to be averted?

Potsdam. She needs to restore her self-consciousness. We have fallen from the greatest heights to the Germans to talk light-heartedly of reconstruction, as some are doing now. Reconstruction! We are, in fact, ever sinking deeper!

I prophesy that the ascent of recovery, if it ever comes, will be terribly hard and difficult. It can and will succeed if and only our people are resolute and untiring in national fortitude and national determination. Let them follow the example of France, of Italy, of England-yes, and of Serbia. a are much worse off now than was Serbia. Let them follow the example of another people of recent years, the native of India.

Must Avenge All Insults. What is the situation today? What is the problem for us Germans? It is this: So long as we remain, as we are now, a people with the weakest of national feelings, answering these seizures of our territory and other indignities leaving the insults unavenged and inviting further encroachments; so long as we are lacking in any national pride, we are far from the forms and customs of other nations So long as fighting fellow-Germans in other parts of the world means more to us than holding together against a foreign foe, so long will we never rise, but fall

In the battle of the Allemani the old warriors called to their interp-id chieftains: "Dismount from your horses;" With that they lost the battle.

We were brought to disaster in this war by internal dissensio Again our generation was not great enough politically, and in some sections morally, for our

What is the remedy to be? If the German people awake with pride and emotion and show again the strength, the courage and the self-sacrifice which even during the war it displayed under the Prussian-German state, then it will do right to count the event of the world war among its most sacred memories in its national history. Germany Like Riderless Horse.

In short, Germany has been, as was in the days of Martin Luther, a fine horse needing but one thing-a rider. For, in spite of the poor quality of our allies, we held our ground against an overwhelming superiority of strength; we defied England's world-conspiracy against us; we kept up our courage for years, in spite of the slanders uttered against our peaceful dispo-sition and in spite of the brutal destruction of countless little settlements of Germans in all parts of the earth. Our men knew how to strike the foe and give their lives for Germany by sea and on land, and the memory of this shall make future generations of Germans marvel and give them faith.

In every respect the fight that was forced upon us bore promise of success, and even after all our errors it was still possible, in Oc er, 1918, to resist a peace of destruction. But the greeds of inernal politics which throughout the war had been ready to capitulate to the external enemy had seized the bridle of a riderless peosupport in the war from our sons who had emigrated, although in other parts of the world German dom had maintained itself by its own strength. This was notabl in the Latin States of South and Central America, and in Mexco. That much-mistaken rescript of Baron von der Heydt, in forcing ilitary service on Germans in Latin-America, actually crippled emigration there in favor of North America. The rescript was only to provide in a fatherly fashion for Country in Worse Plight Than at End of 30 Years' War in 1648-No Opportunity for Reconstruction and No One to Direct It, Grand Admiral Writes.

the future welfare of German emigrants. Those in North America, however, were lost to us forever.

Sons Showed Ingratitude. When Chancellor von Buelow proposed, in 1900, to abolish this rescript there were still some voices raised in favor of its preservation. Many millions of Germans who had emigrated were lost to us, both mentally and physically, and they enriched those countries which were afterwards our worst enemies. Without the aid of German efforts, past and present, the entente would never have been able to inflict upon us the present humiliation-one of the bitterest features

It was our poorly-developed national sense, as much as the conditions which greeted our emi-grants to America, which made the absorption of these millions of Germans by America unavoidable and rendered the abandonment of their nationality with speed and in a remarkably easy manner.

Ex-Soldiers March in New York. I recall an enormous torchlight procession in New York in honor of Prince Henry of Prussia, who United States. Fourteen thousand Germans marched in this parade-all ex-soldiers! All in their prime! It was with sad feel-ings that I witnessed this spec-

For, if the question of nation ality and their loyalty was ever broached to these Germans, their answer would generally be: "We think of German as our mother, but of the United States as our wife. We must stand by the United States."

And I confess I had still less pleasant experiences while on that tour with Prince Henry. The ideals with which their Fatherland had endowed them seemed to be quickly forgotten for the sake of the mere material advantages of American life.

A professor at Harvard Univer-sity, belonging to a good German family, who had been a lecturer at an important German university, was showing me the buildings and grounds at Cambridge. He had only gone to the United States a few years before but he

What About Mother?

SHE NEVER "WALKS OUT," BUT-Puts in a 16-Hour Working Day; Works Overtime Without Extra Pay; Draws the Lowest of Living Wages; Holds Down a Dozen Jobs in One; Never Has Vacations Free From Duty.

By Marguerite Mooers Marshall.

OW comes the very latest strike call—with the country strike-weary! "Let the mothers strike!" proclaims a tired woman, in a recently dished communication on the pext-to-insoluble servant problem. "The questions, problems, anxieties of the modern mother, wife and house keeper," this new "walking delegate" points out, "are now almost unendur- gan their frolic able, and I wonder, as it's the fashion to strike, why a mothers' strike wouldn't be a good thing. If there is any harder working or worked person, on the face of the globe than the mother, wife and housekeeper of today, I would like to see her.

So would I.
